

DO IDEAS HAVE CONSEQUENCES?

(or, does one philosopher anticipate another?)

Dr. Kenneth L. Schmitz
Professor of Philosophy
University of Toronto

Tuesday

Feb. 15

8 pm

Bryan Bldg. 206

LOYOLA

A question many students ask is:

"WHY DO I HAVE TO STUDY THE GREAT DEAD
PHILOSOPHERS? WHY NOT LOOK TO MORE RELEVANT WAYS OF THOUGHT?"

PROFESSOR SCHMITZ WILL DEAL WITH OUR RELATION TO THE PHILOSOPHICAL PAST, AND WILL SUGGEST THE RESULTS WE MIGHT EXPECT IN OUR OWN STUDY OF THE HISTORY OF PHILOSOPHY.

THIS LECTURE HAS RELEVANCE TO STUDENTS OF HISTORY, THEOLOGY, POLITICAL SCIENCE, MODERN LANGUAGES.....AND ANYONE TAKING PHILOSOPHY COURSES.

sponsored by Loyola's Philosophy Department and the Senate Committee on Visiting Lecturers
